Dear Parishioners;
 Already the Fourth Sunday of Advent and in St. Luke's Gospel we hear:

"Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.
 May it be done to me according to your word."

How hard it is for us to be willing to put our life into God's hands, "according to God's word." But our Blessed Mother Mary did it, by the grace of God.

Here is a short reflection from Rev. Killian McDowell
 O.S.B. from a sermon at St. John's Abbey, Collegeville, Minn., Jan. 1, 2005:

The Call

Two things seem clear when God chooses someone for a really important role. God usually chooses someone weak and insignificant, and God chooses that person to die.

As a young girl Mary would not have been taught to read, young boys, yes, but not young girls. Ancient peasant cultures counted females, including wives, among a man's possessions, along with slaves, oxen and donkeys. The selection of Mary's husband would be entirely her parents affair. She could not refuse their choice. As a female Mary would be allowed to enter the synagogue, but had to remain in the back or in the balcony behind a grill. If perchance she did learn to read, she was not allowed to read the Torah in the synagogue service. But God chooses the weak and insignificant to do God's great work.

Mary was also chosen to die. There are many ways of dying. Mary did her dying in shame and pain, as a refugee. God called Mary to the shame of becoming an unwed mother...all of this asked of a girl of twelve or thirteen. And her deaths were just beginning. As a widow she would watch her son die the painful death reserved for the scum of society.

Mary had no role in Jesus' public life. Hers was a hidden life. But Mary, as God's secret, became one of the most influential, celebrated women in history. This secret, weak, unlettered Mother of God, who is our mother, is the wisdom of God, the power of God.
 God's call to Mary mirrors God's call to each one of us.
 In baptism, God calls us, despite our own insignificance, weaknesses and inadequacies, to "give birth" to God's compassion in our own Nazareth's and Bethlehem's. In that call, God calls us to "die" to our own doubts, fears, comfort and safety in order to embrace and be embraced by the new life of his Son's resurrection both in this life and in the next. If Mary, the young, unmarried pregnant teenager, can believe the incredible event that she is about to be a part of, if she can trust herself and believe in her role in the great story, then the most ordinary of us can believe in our parts, as well.

Blessings and Grace,
 Rev Msgr. Charles Cicerale
 Pastor

 and he will rule over the

In the desert prepare the way of the LORD!

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. We will have many opportunities to join together as a community of faith to prepare for the coming of our Lord and Savior.

Our Advent activities will include:

Tuesday December 20th – Penance Service at 7:00PM.
The last opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament before Christmas. There will be several visiting priests for your assistance.

Wednesday December 21st – Mass of Healing at 7:00PM.

PASTORAL COUNCIL CORNER

In the past couple of months you have heard from the Pastoral Council's Formation and Membership committees. Today I would like to introduce you to the Planning Committee. The committee is made up of five members, they are: Dolores Gioffre, Pat Purcell, Greg Lehman, Victoria de Guzman, and Issam Abdallah.

The Committee is tasked with developing a short term (1 year) and long term (3 years) strategic plan for both the council and the parish in the areas of Spirituality (Develop a continuum program to deepen our faith spirituality), Social (To foster and expand social interaction of the parish community), and Leadership (Identify, recruit, and mentor church members for leadership positions).

Currently, we are working on developing and establishing Commissions under which all our existing and new ministries can be mapped. The main purpose of each of the commissions is to strengthen each of its ministries and foster a sense of belonging. These commissions will act as a vehicle through which our strategic plan is to be carried out.

We will be introducing these commissions to you in the next few months. If you have any questions or ideas that can make St. James the place you want to be, please feel free to email it to SJPCwoodbridge@gmail.com or contact any of the pastoral members.

Dear Parishioners of St. James,

Our parish cemetery has served the St. James Catholic Community since the late 1800's. In anticipation of the future needs of parishioners and their families, which is a part of the reality of death, we are developing a section in our cemetery named in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Currently, we have 100 single graves for two interments with pre-poured monument foundations.

Monument regulations are applicable for this section. Multiple grave and cremains plots are also available.

Please contact Camilla Lauricella at 732-634-0500 x11 for more information or to schedule an appointment.
